

FORCED LABOUR DECLARATION

Pro-Pac Packaging and the PPG Group, is a leading supplier of business consumables tailored to the warehousing, manufacturing, logistics, healthcare, pharmaceutical, food service and scientific industries with national locations across Australia. We are a publicly listed company on the ASX (PPG.AX), as such we have a high level of corporate governance that is required to be addressed, reported, and audited regularly.

PPG is audited on an annual basis across all areas of the business, financially, corporate responsibilities and structures, QMS, and Supplier based full end to end supply chain activities. We have a Group Risk Committee that oversees all aspects of risk and compliance within the group that meets each Qtr. and is made up of all the most senior managers with the group, along with advisors and industry experts.

We have an approved supplier program as part of our QMS activities and are accredited nationally to both ISO9001:2008 and HACCP. This has approved supplier questionnaires that our suppliers need to complete and meet certain standards before becoming an approved supplier to PPG. We are signatories to BSCI, SEDEX, APC, and met all our corporate governance requirements as a publicly listed organisation.

Our suppliers are also audited on a regular basis by the Group Risk Manager and key Business Development Managers that travel to our overseas suppliers on a regular basis.

Pro-Pac Packaging aims to be the acknowledged leader in the products it provides, and the manner in which it's provided covering our compliance and regulatory requirements and standards end to end in our supply chain.

Authorised by;

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'Grant Harrod'.

Grant Harrod

Pro-Pac Group CEO | PPG

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'Stephen Dance'.

Stephen Dance

Group Compliance & Risk Manager | PPG

